Elephant Man receives an award and nominations at Festival

Although The Elephant Man did not advance beyond the WODL Festival it was a big hit in Owen Sound and received the following awards and nominations:

Kyle Courneya received a Special Adjudicator's Award for his physical work in the title role. He also received a best actor nomination.

Audrey Hummelen received a best actress nomination for her role as Mrs. Kendall

Keith Burnett received a best supporting actor nomination for his role as Carr Gomm.

Congratulations to all three, as well as director Jane Ingraham and the entire cast and crew for a job well done, both at home and on the road!

The winning production was Burlington's Breaking The Code. Anyone interested in finding out more about the drama league or the festival can visit www.wodl.on.ca.

Auditions for Chicago in May

The Art of Politics Fundraiser

CK On the Edge, Chatham's newest summer arts festival, announces a fundraising event called "The Art of Politics" to take place at The Old Warehouse at Smith & Wilson Winery on Saturday, May 15, 2010 at 6:00 pm.

"The Art of Politics" is best described as a celebration of art, with a live auction of original art created by members of Municipal Council and many of our community leaders, including Mayor Randy Hope.

The evening will begin with cocktails featuring music by Sarah Hiltz, dinner by William Street Cafe, and entertainment by Tom Lockwood and Superfly. Visit ckontheedge.com for more info.

Calling all singers!

The Chatham Capitol Theatre is looking for singers to join a large choir for its opening festival week. The choir will perform the Carmina Burana on the closing night of the celebratory week.
